Duration and conditions of guarantee

At Cooke & Lewis, we take special care to select high quality materials and use manufacturing techniques that allow us to create ranges of products incorporating design and durability. That's why we offer you a guarantee of 10 years against manufacturing defects on our vanity units.

This vanity unit is guaranteed for 10 years from the date of purchase, for normal (non-professional) household use. The guarantee can only be applied on presentation of the sales receipt or purchase invoice. Keep your proof of purchase in a safe place.

The guarantee covers product failures and malfunctions subject to correct use of the product in terms of the purpose for which it is intended and subject to installation, cleaning, care and maintenance in accordance with standard practice and with the information contained above and in the user manual.

The built-in vanity units must have been installed in such a way that they can be removed later, without damage. This contractual guarantee does not cover defects and damage caused by normal wear and tear of units, variations in colour caused over time by the sunlight or other light, severe weather, floods, heat generation, damage or corrosion caused by the water quality (limescale, aggressiveness, corrosion, etc.), by the presence of foreign bodies spread by water or otherwise (sand, filings, etc.) or by the lack of ventilation of the unit and damage that could be the result of improper use, faulty installation or assembly, misuse, neglect, accident modification of the product or defective maintenance.

Also excluded from the guarantee are the adverse consequences due to the use of accessories and/or spare parts that are non-genuine or not suitable for the removal or modification of the product.

The guarantee is limited to parts recognised as defective. It does not, in any case, cover ancillary costs (movement, labour) and direct and indirect damage.

Guarantee related queries should be addressed to a store affiliated with the distributor you purchased the vanity unit from.

This guarantee is in addition to and does not affect your statutory rights.

This warranty does not cover the waste kit.
